

UIU organizes fall-2019 orientation programme

Eduvista Desk

United International University (UIU) organized an orientation programme to welcome the newly enrolled students of fall-2019 at its auditorium on September 21, 2019.

Students from School of Science and Engineering (SoSE) and School of Business and Economics (SoBE) took part in the orientation programme where prof dr Chowdhury Mofizur

Rahman, Vice-Chancellor of UIU was present as chief guest.

Highlighting the academic rules of the university Prof ASM Salahuddin, Registrar, UIU assured of extending all-out cooperation to the newly admitted students. Deans, head of departments, directors, teachers and staff, among others were present where director of career counseling center delivered the concluding remarks in the programme.